

Farms that Accept CSA Bonus Bucks ~ 2011

Contact a CSA farm. From the list below, contact a CSA farm that offers a pickup location convenient to you. Talk with the farmer about how his or her CSA works.

Request references. Ask the CSA farm for the names of past customers you can call as references. Then call these people and inquire about their experiences with that CSA farm.

Choose your CSA farm. Based on what you’ve learned from the farmer and other customers, choose a CSA farm that best meets your needs and that will provide you with satisfactory service and value.

Please note:

- “CSA Bonus Bucks” is a program of GardenShare, a nonprofit organization that works to make wholesome food available to all of us.
- GardenShare is not itself a CSA farm. We simply introduce you to CSA farms that accept our CSA Bonus Bucks.
- GardenShare does not certify or endorse any of the CSA farms listed here. It is your responsibility to choose a farm that meets your needs and that provides you with satisfactory service and value.
